

ANC 1A Public Safety Committee Report for February 9, 2011

Prepared by: Cecilia Jones, ANC 1A Public Safety Committee Co-Chair, 2009-2010

Criminal Justice Accountability Initiative: Protecting the Next Victim is Everyone's Responsibility

Many are not aware of the problem of chronic repeat criminal offenders in our community. The same defendants commit crime after crime, are arrested, sentenced and then released, only to commit more crimes. It's up to us to help "close the revolving door" and see that our system hands down meaningful sentencing, along with the appropriate rehabilitation.

There are ways that ordinary people with busy lives and full-time jobs can become more involved. The Community Criminal Justice Accountability Initiative (CCJAI) is a program that began in Columbia Heights in April of 2009 to address public safety concerns and chronic repeat offenses. CCJAI, a partnership of law enforcement, criminal justice agencies and community members, has submitted over 70 Community Impact Statements to judges at sentencing, and has tracked over 550 criminal cases. Stakeholders include MPD, USAO, OAG, PSA, CSOSA, the DC Council, and community members. We are working to improve criminal justice system, while reducing the burden of chronic repeat offenses. You can help by writing Community Impact Statements in criminal cases in your neighborhood.
